Some time ago Mr. C. M. Coffield, of Winchester, traveling for a large cutlery manufacturing concern, while motoring from Paris to Winchester, lost a large roll of sample scissors from his car.

Mr. Coffield advertised his loss in THE NEWS, and the same morning the advertisement appeared in the paper, the lost bundle was found by a young man named Henry, and restored to Mr. Coffield, who gladly paid him the reward offered.

The above only emphasizes a fact that is well-known to the people of Paris—it pays to advertise in THE NEWS.

"IT'S ALL OVER NOW"

(Mt. Sterling Gazette)
The Mt. Sterling team can beat Maysville or Cynthiana, either, any time, anywhere, and both of them realize it. President Russell did not want his "pets" to go against Hod Eller and the Essex in the final series, as he had the say as to who won the last half of the pennant, Mt. Sterling lost out. Fear of the final test in the championship race had a lot to do with the President's decision in the minds of many impartial fans.

HUNTING SEASON OPENS ON NOVEMBER 15

The hunting season on quail and rabbits will open November 15, and according to Dr. R. S. Tuttle, executive agent of the Game and Fish Commission, there are more birds in Kentucky this year than for several years past.

Dr. Tuttle stated that the Ohio river southern flight of migratory game birds has been greater this year than ever before. The open season on these birds in Kentucky extends from September 16 to December 31.

The fish car of the commission is now in Ballard county sealing the overflow ponds of the Ohio river. The fish will be used to restock streams and ponds.
